

Trading turnover on Tradegate Exchange up by 47 percent in 2015

Total order book turnover of 75.3 billion Euros is highest ever

Tradegate Exchange, a member of the Deutsche Börse Group, increased its order book turnover by 47 percent to 75.3 billion Euros in 2015 (2014: 51.1 billion). Of this amount, 68.4 billion Euros were attributable to turnover in equities in which Tradegate Exchange remains the fastest growing exchange for private investors in Germany.

Oliver Szabries, Managing Director of Tradegate Exchange, said: "Tradegate Exchange has once again significantly increased its market share in 2015 and is one of the leading exchanges in Germany. One of the main reasons for our continued growth is our capacity for innovation. We want to build on this and intend to expand further, even if competitors are now following similar strategies."

In December Tradegate Exchange's order book turnover amounted to 5.6 billion Euros (December 2014: 4.3 billion). Of this, 3.9 billion Euros were attributable to turnover in equities.
